First Annual Saint Martin in-the-Fields Arts Festival:
Artist Gala Reception

Interpretations of the 14 Stations of the Cross & Resurrection

What: A Group of 14 artists from all walks of life, each with a story to tell, bare their souls in passionate works of art. Each artist faces the challenge of interpreting one of the 14 Stations of the Cross during Christ's last walk, using their own media relating it to their own spiritual journey. Oils, textiles, photography and pottery are media represented in this show. Similar art festivals enrich cities around the globe and now Fort Worth is excited to host its first show of this kind.

When: Saturday, April 10th from 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Where: Saint Martin-In-the-Fields Episcopal Church, Parish Hall 223 S. Pearson Lane, Keller, Texas 76248

Bring your family and friends to a night of reflection and celebration featuring music, champagne and light hors d'oeuvres.

**child care will be provided*
