

Standing Committee Nominees – Clergy Member

The Rev. David Madison was an attorney in private practice in Ft. Worth before entering the priesthood. After graduating from Nashotah House Theological Seminary, he joined the staff of All Saints' Episcopal Church in Fort Worth where he coordinated the Christian Education program and the Young Adults ministry. He is currently the Director of Religious Studies at his alma mater—All Saints' Episcopal School. He is an accredited Godly Play teacher and also serves as a Diocesan trainer for Safeguarding God's Children. Fr. Madison currently chairs both the Resolutions Committee and the Convention Planning Committee for the Diocese. He was a clerical deputy to General Convention 2009 and is a member of the Program, Budget and Finance Committee of TEC 2009-2012.

Standing Committee Nominees – Lay Members

Margaret D. Mieuli was baptized at St. Andrew's, Fort Worth in 1946 and attended faithfully for almost 30 years. Shortly after graduating from TCU with a B.S. in Education, she joined the faculty at St. Christopher Pre-School and subsequently transferred her membership there. She has been EYC Sponsor, Guild Chairperson, vestry member, Senior Warden, Sunday School teacher, LEM and delegate. Margaret has been treasurer of both church and school since 2000. She was elected Lay Sub-Dean of FW West Deanery in 2007. She has been an active member of Fort Worth Via Media and Steering Committee North Texas Episcopalians, serving as treasurer for both. She is a current member and secretary of the Standing Committee. Margaret was a lay deputy to General Convention 2009. Her business experience includes serving as a board member of the Society of American Florists, FTD Young Owner Managers and FTD District 9. For SAF she chaired the Bylaws Revision Committee and the Organizational Competency Committee. Margaret formerly held membership in Rotary Club of Fort Worth.

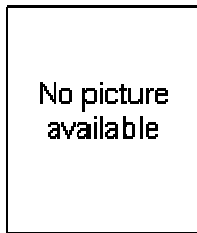

Jerry L. Nanna is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church in Fort Worth where he serves on the vestry and the Personnel Committee. Jerry chairs the Finance/Stewardship, Risk Management and Long Range Planning Committees at Trinity. He ushers and participates in Bible Studies. Prior to coming to Fort Worth he served as a Sunday School teacher and was Chairman of Outreach for Career/Job Transition Ministry. He is currently chairing the Diocesan Resolution Four Committee. Jerry's professional experience includes CEO Abercrombie & Fitch, Cloth World, Corporate VP of AON Corporation, a global financial services company, CEO Lord and Taylor and co-founder/Chairman of the Round Table Group Advisory Services.

Trustee Corporation of the Diocese of Fort Worth

J. Trace Worrell is a member of All Saints' Episcopal Church in Fort Worth where he currently serves as a member of the vestry. He has been a member of the Board of Trustees of All Saints' Episcopal School since 2005. Trace has been a choir member at All Saints' since 1969. He currently holds the positions of Trustee of the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth and member of the Diocesan Commission on Episcopal Schools. His professional activities include being a member of the Board of Trustees of Texas Health Arlington Memorial Hospital (2006-present), president of the Medical Staff (2006-2008) and member of the Board of Trustees of Carter Blood Care (2000-2006).

Lay Trustee University of the South (Sewanee)

Sherri L. Glaser is a member of St. Luke in the Meadow Episcopal Church in Fort Worth. She has served on the vestry and is a member of the choir. Sherri participates in the Stephen Ministry program. She is an educator at Pope Elementary in Arlington. She recently attended a meeting of the Trustees of the University of the South representing our diocese. The vacancy to which she was elected at the special convention in February is now expiring. Sherri would appreciate the opportunity to serve a full term as trustee.